The latest news from the Stop The Toad Team

March 2010

Registration Open!

Registration for the Great Toad Muster 2010 is now open! The 2010 Muster will run from September 11th until October 11th.

Volunteers do not require any experience, just a keen interest in the environment and must be good at working in a team. All food, accommodation and transport from Kununurra will be provided. Training will also be provided on site.

Volunteers are encouraged to attend the Muster for at least a week, but are welcome to stay for the entire month.

To register, go to www.stopthetoad.org.au and fill in the registration form or contact Kim on kim@stopthetoad.org.au. Places are strictly limited to 40 people per night.

Everyday HERO

Stop The Toad has teamed up with fundraising group 'Everyday Hero' to help us raise much needed funds for our volunteers during this year's Muster activities. We have a donation page; http://www.everydayhero.com.au/stop_the_toad and our aim is to raise $5000. Get your friends and family to sponsor you for all your hard work in the field! Join as a team member so friends and family can choose to specifically sponsor you. You can see on-line who has donated what and who they are supporting. Kim has started off the bidding- for herself!

Freaky Facts

- A few toads have been found near Kununurra over the 2009/10 wet season.
- A game meat producer in QLD hopes to export cane toads to China for medicine and food.
- Scientists from Sydney Uni are trialing the use of cat food to lure meat ants to the edge of water holes. Meat ants tend to attack baby toads coming out of the water.
